

Social, Personal, Church and Fraternal News of Mount Vernon

LOCAL BOYS TO ENTER U. OF PA.

Others Returning to Philadelphia University

Three Mount Vernon students, William G. Carlson, 62 Winfield avenue; Paul K. Brown, 28 Urban street; and Frank C. LeGost, 413 Homestead avenue, will be among those who will register in the freshman class of the University of Pennsylvania when it opens for the 1927-1928 term on September 27. It was announced by the office of admissions of the university.

All three students are graduates of the Mount Vernon high school, where they were active in student life. LeGost was a member of the varsity hockey team. Student council, the National High School Honor society and Tau Epsilon Phi Scholastic Honor society, and was contributing editor to the school magazine. Carlson was a member of the track squad, while Brown was active in student dramatics. They will enter the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce of the University.

Mount Vernon students returning to the university in September will include Albert E. Brodbeck, 354 Rock street; Henry B. Brown, Jr., 28 Urban street; Bernard D. Giles, 312 Prospect avenue; Arthur E. Kaplan, 161 Elm street; and Earl Lehmer, 115 North High street; Randolph M. Martens, 35 Edgewood avenue; Edward P. O'Reilly, 227 Claremont avenue; Oscar Sussman, 240 North Fulton avenue; and John S. Walberg, 240 North Fulton avenue. Brodbeck is a member of the sophomore class of the university, and last season played on the freshman football and basketball squads. He is a member of Kappa Sigma fraternity. Walberg is a member of the varsity baseball squad, while Kaplan is a member of the art board of the Punch Bowl.

W. C. T. U. PLANS CELEBRATION

50th Anniversary to Be Commemorated October 27

The opening meeting of the Mount Vernon branch of the W. C. T. U. was held Thursday afternoon in the First M. E. War Memorial building. There was a large attendance. Mrs. S. D. Le Page, the president, presided.

Mrs. Charles Donaldson led the devotional exercises, reading the first Psalm, which was followed by prayer. The music was under the direction of Miss E. Baudenhagen.

This session was devoted to the arrangements for the program for the fiftieth anniversary to be held on October 27, which promises to be among the largest affairs in the city in several years. The arrangements will include a banquet. Only 300 tickets will be disposed.

To Wed Here Today

Miss Louise S. Johansen, of 28 North Terrace avenue, who will become the bride of Warren S. Lee of Wellsville, N. Y., this afternoon.

of and it is requested that the charter members and friends secure reservations as soon as possible.

Several prominent speakers have been secured, including Mrs. Ella A. Boole, national president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. M. A. Bohm and other state and county officers. Mrs. S. D. Le Page will give the history of the work done by the organization.

The delegates to the state convention which will be held in Elmira October 5-11 will be Mrs. S. D. Le Page and Mrs. E. Cutbill. Mrs. Cutbill, of 215 Union avenue, will furnish information to members who wish to attend the convention. The nominating committee was appointed also, and included Mrs. William Ebert, Mrs. J. E. Ellison, and Mrs. Hattie Sherwood. Three new members were announced.

SOCIAL TOMORROW

Big Function Takes Place at Local Y. M. H. A. Building

Tomorrow evening the Y. M. H. A. and Y. W. H. A. will hold their jointly opening social welcome of the season at the "Y" auditorium, 30 North Tenth avenue. The program will consist of greetings from the presidents of the Y. M. H. A. and Y. W. H. A. The clubs of the Y. M. H. A. and Y. W. H. A. will be represented by having the president's convey their greetings to the assembly. The social committees of the Y. M. H. A. and Y. W. H. A. will be represented by the chairman of these committees, Abraham Shiman will arrive on time from his summer home at Naples, Maine, to again be with the members to usher in the new season. All of these greetings will be short as the evening also consists of social festivities which will include dancing.

PERSONAL MENTION

—Eugene S. Fluke of West Second street, is spending the week-end in Madison, Conn.

—J. Albert Zimmerman, of Rockledge avenue, is spending the week-end at Narragansett.

—Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Thompson, of North Fulton avenue, leave today for camp in Connecticut.

—Mr. and Mrs. James Travers, of South First avenue, are spending a few days at Tannersville.

—Commissioner of Public Safety Charles W. Wynne, is ill at his home on Cottage avenue.

—A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weinrod, of 359 Garden avenue, yesterday at Sydenham hospital.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis D. Hill and family, of Cottage avenue, will return next week from their summer camp at Centre Lovell, Maine.

—Miss Pauline Wilson, of 379 East Fifth street, will attend Central Collegiate Institute, Hackensack, N. J., the coming school year.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. Merton Joyce, of Park Plaza, returned Wednesday evening from Lake Placid, where they spent their vacation.

—Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fendler and children of Primrose avenue, returned home on Thursday from Sachem's Head, Conn., where they spent the summer.

—Mrs. J. P. Corvan and family, of Wallace avenue, expect to return home next week, from their cottage on Lake Champlain, where they have been all summer.

—Mrs. B. J. Corvan, of Wallace avenue and Miss Dorothy Cromelin, who have been counselors at Camp Ojoka, Center Harbor, N. H., returned yesterday.

—Mrs. and Mr. Robert M. Rogers and family, of East Fifth street, who have been spending the summer at their camp in Kent, Conn., are expected home next week.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Eals, of Hilltop road, Bronxville, formerly of Prospect avenue, are enjoying a motor trip through the New England states, their objective point being York, Maine.

—Dr. and Mrs. George L. Cady, of Hanover place, returned on Monday from their summer home in New Hampshire. Dr. Cady is the secretary of the American Missionary association.

—Mrs. John Lowry of the Park Lane, has returned to her home after a motor trip through the New England states and Canada. Mrs. Elsie Lane and little daughter accompanied Mrs. Lowry.

—Mrs. A. Van Houtt, of 235 Union avenue, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lucia, to Wylie S. Hemingway, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Hemingway, of 229 North Seventh avenue.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robinson, of Jersey City, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Alice Hopkins, to Alfred Stuart Valentine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Potter formerly lived on Hanover place.

—A daughter was born yesterday to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Koenig, of Washington, D. C., at the Garfield Memorial hospital, Washington. Mrs. Koenig was formerly Miss Evelyn F. Adams, of 575 East Third street.

—Irving Friedlander, of South Fifth avenue, left this morning on a two weeks' motor trip through New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia, where they expect to visit the large cities.

—Jacques Redway Hammond, a grandson of J. W. Redway, returned from a tour through Europe yesterday. He will spend a short time in Mount Vernon. Mr. Hammond graduated from Rochester University this year, winning three honors.

—Mrs. L. F. Vosburgh, of the Park Plaza, who returned home Monday with her husband from their camp in Maine, will leave on Wednesday for California on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Wilson.

—Mr. and Mrs. S. Stafford, of 207 North Seventh avenue, have returned from a motor trip through New England, New York and New Jersey. While in New Jersey, they visited Mr. and Mrs. A. Scott Anderson, of Vineland, formerly of this city.

—Miss Mildred M. Babcock, of 18 North Eighth avenue, has as her guest for the week-end, Miss Margaret C. Burrows, of Staten Island. They will leave on Monday for Allentown, Pa., when they will resume studies in their junior year at Cedar Crest college.

—Mrs. Jerome Carlock Annis and little son, Jerome Jr., who have spent the summer as the guests of Mrs. Annis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Rogers, at their summer home in South Kent, Conn., expect to leave for their home in San Antonio, Texas, next week.

—Miss Anna May, formerly head of the Children's department of the Mount Vernon Public Library, has returned from a stay of several months in Paris. She is visiting her sister, Mrs. Horace Frame. Miss May was the head of the army library service in the Canal Zone for about eight years.

—Edwin W. Fluke, Jr., of West Second street, and his brother-in-law, Inman E. Stower, left yesterday for Providence, R. I., to spend the week-end at Cape Porpoise, Me., and return with his mother, Mr. Stower will go to Boston on a business trip after his stay in Providence.

—On Monday the Rev. Dr. S. G. von Boss, director of the Warburg Orphan Farm, Conn., will speak at the annual defenders' day exercises in Riverview park, Baltimore, Md. This event is observed in the United States in memory of the Star Spangled Banner. The Baltimore affair is always honored by the presence of high public officials, including the governor, and attracts about 40,000 persons. Dr. von Boss spoke upon a similar occasion in 1916.

—Mrs. Margaret Linder, of Mount Vernon, is at Mount Vernon hospital after an operation. Mrs. Linder is the sister of Mrs. Charles Chubbuck, of 94 Magalloway avenue, and has made her home with her sister for the last few years. She has been attended in her illness by members of her own family, who came here from Hollywood, to be with their mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. Mrs. Rhodora Flannette, made the trip in July, and expects to be with her mother for a while. Miss Margaret Flannette, who is Mrs. Linder's granddaughter, and a moving picture continuity and title writer in Hollywood, recently returned to the coast after a short visit. With her she had little Patricia Flannette, aged three, who is Mrs. Linder's great-granddaughter, and thus rounds out the four generations.

Well Known Couple Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary

Residents of this city for 47 years, Mr. and Mrs. William L. Eayrs, who for the last year have been residing with their daughter, Mrs. William J. Vinton, of North avenue, Fanwood, N. J., will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary tomorrow, at Fanwood. Mr. Eayrs, who has been in poor health for about a year, last year went from this city, with Mrs. Eayrs to live with their daughter. The couple came to Mount Vernon in 1882. Both were born in England, and after they had resided in New York city for a year, they moved to Mount Vernon, making their home at 100 Beechwood avenue. Mr. Eayrs is a retired builder. The couple have four sons and two daughters to congratulate them on the fiftieth year of their marriage tomorrow. They are John H. Eayrs, of 539 South Third avenue, who is associated with Burr Davis and Son, morticians; Herbert, of Bergenfield, N. J.; Charles, of New Rochelle; Edward B. Eayrs, of Glens Falls, who was wounded in the world war, and who was formerly a member of the Pelham Manor police department; also Mrs. A. Erwin, of Torrington, Conn.; Mrs. William J. Vinton, of Fanwood, N. J., and Miss Catherine Eayrs, of Fanwood. With the exception of the latter, all of the children are married.

FRATERNAL NOTES

Vernon Stewart chapter 794, O. E. S., will have a meeting this evening in Masonic temple, during which there will be balloting, regular business, and a social meeting. Plans will also be made for the fall and winter season.

The Westchester county committee of the American Legion auxiliary met in this city on Wednesday evening.

Those who represented the Mount Vernon unit were Miss Flora Friedlander, Mrs. Bessie Stafford, Mrs. Emily Milne, Mrs. Frances Geiger, Mrs. Anne Robinson, and Mrs. Beatrice Cullison. On Thursday evening a number of members of the unit went to New York city to bid bon voyage to those sailing to the Paris convention.

Wife Goes Into One Year of Exile to Be with Her Husband

Exclusive Central Press Dispatch to Daily Argus

Almont, Mich.—Mrs. Nicholas de Bellavsky-Arnoldy, formerly Miss Julia Briet of here, now wife of a former Russian imperial army captain, is going into one year's voluntary exile because of love.

When the American government decreed that de Bellavsky-Arnoldy must spend a year in the West Indies to make him eligible for application for citizenship in the United States, the Russian's wife decided to share de Bellavsky-Arnoldy's exile.

The couple met while she was studying music in Belgium. They married and their child, Irene, was born in America during a year's stay here granted de Bellavsky-Arnoldy by the government.

Girl Exiles Self

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Shute, of 128 South Fulton avenue, to John D. Walther, of 134 Haven avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Walther, took place Friday, September 2, at 3 p. m. in the Church of the Sacred Heart, Rev. Father Croke, performing the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Emily Cherrone, who acted as bridesmaid. Walter Boucher, of Mount Vernon, was best man. Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Walther, left on a motor trip to New Jersey. Upon their return, they will reside at 115 East Fourth street.

A device has been developed by United States government scientists which, when placed in the firebox of a furnace, creates a sufficient draft to burn small sizes of coal.

A patent has been granted for a cooking utensil having a slot in the end of the handle to hold a spoon out of the way of the lid of the device and prevent it becoming heated.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

French experimenters have succeeded in running an automobile with acetone gas at much less cost than with gasoline and without injury to the valves, cylinders or pistons.

IN SOCIETY

Mrs. Robert E. Mitchell, of 229 Claremont avenue, will entertain the members of her bridge club on Tuesday afternoon at her residence.

The second annual conference of executives of the University club will be held Wednesday at the Oriana Beach club, La C. Wellington is president of the club.

Tau Beta Sigma will meet on Tuesday evening at the residence of Miss Mary Wilbur, 4718 Carpenter avenue, New York city. It will be the first regular session of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards Diefendorf, of 270 North Fulton avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Anne, to Malcolm J. Black, son of Howard D. Black, of Oradell, N. J.

Mrs. Inman E. Stower, of West Second street, gave a luncheon-bridge yesterday at the Rye Country club, in honor of Miss Helen Melcher and ten of her friends. Miss Melcher received a guest prize and also won the high score prize. Mrs. J. A. Brahmson won the second and Miss Henrietta Melcher the third.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Atwell, daughter of Chief of Police George Atwell and Mrs. Atwell of Union avenue, to Raymond F. Warren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Warren of Tarrytown, will take place tomorrow evening at 6 o'clock in the Sacred Heart church. Rev. Father Giffelman will perform the ceremony which is to be followed by a dinner and reception at Hotel Siwanoy.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The engagement has been announced of Miss Sarah Elizabeth Vaughan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Holmes, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. H. Holmes, of 2 Park lane, Mount Vernon. The wedding will take place on October 8, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Vaughan, of Carterville, Ga.

After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Holmes will leave for the north to visit Mr. Holmes' parents and for a motor trip through New England.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of Yonkers, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city. Miss Stevens has chosen her friend, Miss Ruth Gates, of New York, for her maid of honor. Miss Gates formerly was the leading woman at the Westchester theatre. Little Janet Clark, of Brooklyn, a niece of the bride, will act as flower girl. Mr. Chequer has chosen Lewis Rahmer, of Baldwin, L. I., for his best man, the nine ushers, are Harry Cook, of Mount Vernon; also his brother, Henry Chequer, Jr., of New Rochelle; Ernest L. Stevens, of Mount Vernon; a brother of the bride, Ira Harde, of Norwalk, Conn., formerly of Mount Vernon; Stephen Stainach, of Mount Vernon; John Gittel, of New York; Maurice Shibley, of New Rochelle; Gerald Clark, of Brooklyn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gerald Smith, a cousin of the bride, of Verona, New Jersey. Prior to the ceremony a musical program will be rendered by A. J. Hickok, of Mount Vernon. A reception for the family and intimate friends, will be held at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. Miss Stevens is a graduate of Virgil Planaforte school of New York and holds a position as church organist. Mr. Chequer, served two years overseas with the signal corps in the world war, he is a public accountant in New York. After a motor trip through New England, the married couple will reside at 17 Urban street, this city.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of Yonkers, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city. Miss Stevens has chosen her friend, Miss Ruth Gates, of New York, for her maid of honor. Miss Gates formerly was the leading woman at the Westchester theatre. Little Janet Clark, of Brooklyn, a niece of the bride, will act as flower girl. Mr. Chequer has chosen Lewis Rahmer, of Baldwin, L. I., for his best man, the nine ushers, are Harry Cook, of Mount Vernon; also his brother, Henry Chequer, Jr., of New Rochelle; Ernest L. Stevens, of Mount Vernon; a brother of the bride, Ira Harde, of Norwalk, Conn., formerly of Mount Vernon; Stephen Stainach, of Mount Vernon; John Gittel, of New York; Maurice Shibley, of New Rochelle; Gerald Clark, of Brooklyn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gerald Smith, a cousin of the bride, of Verona, New Jersey. Prior to the ceremony a musical program will be rendered by A. J. Hickok, of Mount Vernon. A reception for the family and intimate friends, will be held at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. Miss Stevens is a graduate of Virgil Planaforte school of New York and holds a position as church organist. Mr. Chequer, served two years overseas with the signal corps in the world war, he is a public accountant in New York. After a motor trip through New England, the married couple will reside at 17 Urban street, this city.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of Yonkers, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city. Miss Stevens has chosen her friend, Miss Ruth Gates, of New York, for her maid of honor. Miss Gates formerly was the leading woman at the Westchester theatre. Little Janet Clark, of Brooklyn, a niece of the bride, will act as flower girl. Mr. Chequer has chosen Lewis Rahmer, of Baldwin, L. I., for his best man, the nine ushers, are Harry Cook, of Mount Vernon; also his brother, Henry Chequer, Jr., of New Rochelle; Ernest L. Stevens, of Mount Vernon; a brother of the bride, Ira Harde, of Norwalk, Conn., formerly of Mount Vernon; Stephen Stainach, of Mount Vernon; John Gittel, of New York; Maurice Shibley, of New Rochelle; Gerald Clark, of Brooklyn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gerald Smith, a cousin of the bride, of Verona, New Jersey. Prior to the ceremony a musical program will be rendered by A. J. Hickok, of Mount Vernon. A reception for the family and intimate friends, will be held at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. Miss Stevens is a graduate of Virgil Planaforte school of New York and holds a position as church organist. Mr. Chequer, served two years overseas with the signal corps in the world war, he is a public accountant in New York. After a motor trip through New England, the married couple will reside at 17 Urban street, this city.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of Yonkers, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city. Miss Stevens has chosen her friend, Miss Ruth Gates, of New York, for her maid of honor. Miss Gates formerly was the leading woman at the Westchester theatre. Little Janet Clark, of Brooklyn, a niece of the bride, will act as flower girl. Mr. Chequer has chosen Lewis Rahmer, of Baldwin, L. I., for his best man, the nine ushers, are Harry Cook, of Mount Vernon; also his brother, Henry Chequer, Jr., of New Rochelle; Ernest L. Stevens, of Mount Vernon; a brother of the bride, Ira Harde, of Norwalk, Conn., formerly of Mount Vernon; Stephen Stainach, of Mount Vernon; John Gittel, of New York; Maurice Shibley, of New Rochelle; Gerald Clark, of Brooklyn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gerald Smith, a cousin of the bride, of Verona, New Jersey. Prior to the ceremony a musical program will be rendered by A. J. Hickok, of Mount Vernon. A reception for the family and intimate friends, will be held at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. Miss Stevens is a graduate of Virgil Planaforte school of New York and holds a position as church organist. Mr. Chequer, served two years overseas with the signal corps in the world war, he is a public accountant in New York. After a motor trip through New England, the married couple will reside at 17 Urban street, this city.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by Rev. Dr. George D. Adams, of Yonkers, former pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city. Miss Stevens has chosen her friend, Miss Ruth Gates, of New York, for her maid of honor. Miss Gates formerly was the leading woman at the Westchester theatre. Little Janet Clark, of Brooklyn, a niece of the bride, will act as flower girl. Mr. Chequer has chosen Lewis Rahmer, of Baldwin, L. I., for his best man, the nine ushers, are Harry Cook, of Mount Vernon; also his brother, Henry Chequer, Jr., of New Rochelle; Ernest L. Stevens, of Mount Vernon; a brother of the bride, Ira Harde, of Norwalk, Conn., formerly of Mount Vernon; Stephen Stainach, of Mount Vernon; John Gittel, of New York; Maurice Shibley, of New Rochelle; Gerald Clark, of Brooklyn, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Gerald Smith, a cousin of the bride, of Verona, New Jersey. Prior to the ceremony a musical program will be rendered by A. J. Hickok, of Mount Vernon. A reception for the family and intimate friends, will be held at the home of the bride, following the ceremony. Miss Stevens is a graduate of Virgil Planaforte school of New York and holds a position as church organist. Mr. Chequer, served two years overseas with the signal corps in the world war, he is a public accountant in New York. After a motor trip through New England, the married couple will reside at 17 Urban street, this city.

The marriage of Miss Ethel Glad Stevens, daughter of Mrs. John W. Stevens, of 17 Urban street, to John Daniel Chequer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Chequer, of Bad, eau place, New Rochelle, will take place Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Congregational church, Mount Vernon in the presence of a large assembly of relatives and friends, four hundred invitations having been issued to the church. The ceremony will be performed by the pastor, Rev. Carl S. Welst, assisted by